

EXPERTISE

Our expertise has been growing in a number of professional fields ever since Conductor was founded in 2007. We have years of experience working with electrical installations and instrumentation conducting assignment for industry and public agencies. Our company is based in Sarpsborg but we also have ongoing projects outside the county. Our customers have learned to rely on us over the years. We have established a number of framework agreements based on their trust. We work in various professional fields such as industry, infrastructure, energy, municipal engineering, shipping/offshore and public parks, streets and skate parks.
